THREE WOMEN

Three faceted faces emerge through rhythmic planes of color, uniting geometric precision and chromatic warmth in a meditation on collective womanhood.

SERENITY

A woman rests in a woven hammock, her figure opened into prismatic planes of color — a private pause where inner calm meets the rhythm of light and form.

RESIGNATION

Head bowed, arms wrapped around herself — a cubist figure yields to the quiet of acceptance, strength found in letting go.

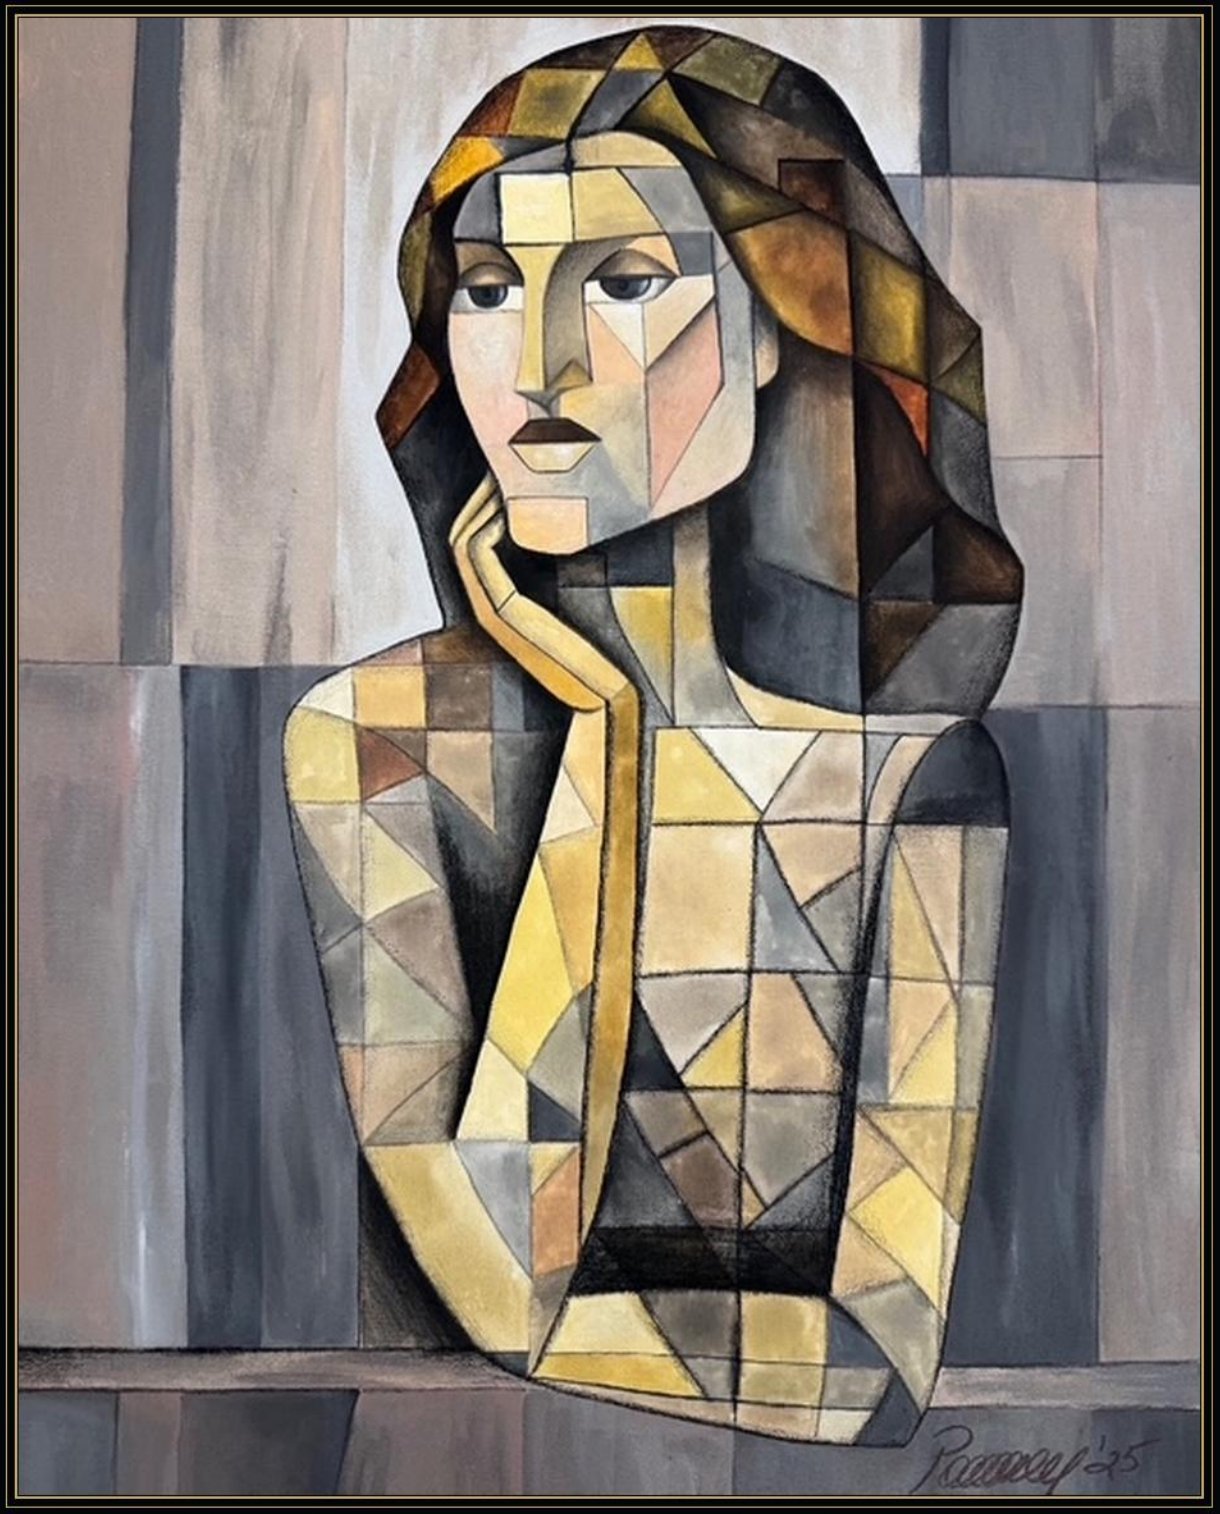

WOMAN BATHING

A woman immersed in an intimate act of bathing — a private pause of self-awareness and reconnection, where the visible body meets the quiet inner self.

THOUGHTS

Chin resting on her hand, the subject looks outward with calm dignity — muted earth tones and structured planes turn introspection into universal form.

WOMAN AND BABY

A mother and infant share a quiet moment of intimacy — golden light turns crystalline facets into warmth and tenderness.

CRANE FLOWERS

Vibrant crane flowers rise through a crystalline vase — light breaks stems, leaves and space into shifting planes of geometry, color and reflection.
