SIMONA SCHAFFER

MEXICO – SPAIN

Lisbon

A panoramic urban landscape using paraffin and pigments to transform a geographic location into an evocative emotional memory, where architecture, color, and atmosphere merge into a layered experience of place.

Migrant

Constructed from newspaper fragments and delicate drawing, this intimate collage transforms a solitary figure into a symbol of displacement, resilience, and belonging. The work reflects Schaffer's ongoing exploration of the human stories that unfold at the margins of the city.

Sleeping under the Streetlights

Crafted from discarded materials and encaustic paint, this poignant installation transforms urban vulnerability into a powerful reflection on visibility, dignity, and societal empathy.

Who Pushes the Cart

An immersive installation that bridges pictorial representation and lived reality, transforming an ordinary object into a powerful symbol of identity, presence, and belonging for the city's often invisible residents.

Subway Passengers

A vibrant depiction of collective behavior that reveals the shared emotions and sensory overload of everyday transit in the metropolis. Oil on paper emphasizing a dark, intense, and vibrant palette to evoke urban chaos.

Simona Schaffer's work invites us to rediscover the extraordinary within the ordinary. Through gestures, encounters, memories, and shared urban experiences, she reveals the hidden connections that shape our collective lives. In doing so, she reminds us that empathy begins with attention—and that the city is ultimately a reflection of ourselves.
